

International Education Conference Schedule

Monday, March 31

- 7:30-5:30 Conference Registration
- 8:00-8:45 Breakfast, Plenary Session, and WCSS Awards – Diana Hess, Associate Professor, Curriculum & Instruction, University of Wisconsin-Madison
“The Democracy Divide: Ideas and Policies to Close the Gap”
- 8:55-9:55 Session #1
Kain & Doherty – Great World Texts in Wisconsin (Middleton Room)
Ermer – Internationalize your Portfolio through an International Professional Development Opportunity (Room F)
Bonnie – Learning & Teaching about China in the Classroom (Room H)
DallaGrana, Uraneck, and Masotsa – Teaching about Southern Africa – Live from Lesotho, Africa (Geneva Room)
- 10:05-11:05 Exhibit Hall Grand Opening
- 11:15-12:15 Session #2
Duvall, Rosenow & Duley – What is Puentes/Bridges? (Middleton Room)
French & Freund – Travel Abroad Opportunities for Teachers (Room F)
Merritt – New Perspectives from a Chinese University (Room H)
Laxova – Personal Memories of Life under Hitler and Stalin (Geneva Room)
- 12:15-1:45 Luncheon and Remarks – Dean Gilles Bousquet, International Studies and Programs and Director of the International Institute, University of Wisconsin-Madison
Keynote Speaker – Greg Mortenson, Director of the Central Asia Institute and Proponent of the Education of Girls, and Author of Three Cups of Tea
“The Challenges of Providing Schools and Educating Girls in Northern Pakistan and Afghanistan”
- 1:45-2:15 Exhibit Hall
- 2:15-3:15 Session #3
Nigohosian & Tica – One Divided by Two: The Berlin Wall (Sponsored by WIGA) (Middleton Room)
Ratway – Developing Curriculum with a Focus on Global Connections and Comparisons (1st Session of a 120-Minute Program) (Room H)
Plinski, Tincher & Basche – Global Business and Culture at the Secondary Level (with Students) (Room F)
Mortenson - The “Pennies for Peace” Program for Schools (Geneva Room)
- 3:25-4:25 Session #4
Thompson & LeClair – Oaxaca Workshop: Integrating Art and Social Studies (Middleton Room)
Bauder & Parks – Graduate Students Travel the World: The Global Educator Graduate Certificate Program (Room F)
Ratway – Developing Curriculum with a Focus on Global Connections and Comparisons (2nd Session of a 120-Minute Program) (Room H)

Kropidlowski – The Party’s Over: Central & Eastern Europe since the Fall of the Iron Curtain (Sponsored by WIGA) (Geneva Room)

4:30-6:30 Wine and Cheese Social in the Exhibit Hall and Book Signings

Greg Mortenson, Three Cups of Tea
Harvey Kaye, Thomas Paine and the Promise of America

Tuesday, April 1

7:30-2:00 Registration

8:00-9:00 Session #5

Calahan – Taking a Trip to China into the Classroom (Room F)
Tolan, Janssen Eager, and Feeney – How Do I Incorporate Peace Education and Global Studies into my Already Overloaded Curriculum? (1st Session of a (120-Minute Program) (Room G)
Wattiaux, Vargas & Ledin – Bridging the Worlds: An Initiative to Pair UW-Madison Students with High School Teachers to Produce Lesson Units on Mexico-USA Interdependencies (Middleton Room)
Fischer – Pathways to Global Literacy - International Education Opportunities at DPI (Geneva Room)

9:10-10:10 Session #6

Quinnell & Perri – The Thailand Project: Higher Education as Humanitarian Aid (1st Session of a 120-Minute Program) (Room F) –CANCELLED
Schroeder - The World at Our Fingertips: Strategies for Achieving Global Literacy (Salon F)
Tolan, Janssen Eager, and Feeney – How Do I Incorporate Peace Education and Global Studies into my Already Overloaded Curriculum? (2nd Session of a (120-Minute Program) (Room G)
Ratway, Fischer & Leary – How Flat is Your World? An Inter-Disciplinary Approach to Global Literacy (1st Session of a 120-Minute Program (Middleton)
Lilleleht – Bringing the World to your Classroom: Resources of the Wisconsin International Outreach Consortium and Ways of Integrating them into the Curriculum (Geneva Room)

10:15-11:15 Exhibit Hall

11:20-12:20 Session #7

Waite & Linden – International Dimensions of Social and Science (Room G)
Ratway, Fischer, & Leary – How Flat is your World? An Inter-Disciplinary Approach to Global Literacy (2nd Session of a 120 Minute Program) (Middleton)
Freund & Hayes – Bridging Cultures through Stories and Art (Geneva Room)
Sim Chen Hon Kelvin & Lim Geok Choo B, Innova Junior College (High School), Singapore—Everything You Wanted to Know About Education in Singapore (Salon F)

12:30-1:45 Luncheon and Keynote Speaker – Harvey J. Kaye, Rosenberg Professor of Social Change and Development, Director, Center for History and Social Change, University of Wisconsin- Green Bay, and Author of Thomas Paine and the Promise of America
“Paine and the American Democratic Tradition”