

International and Global Sessions and Workshops

Monday, March 19

7:30-5:30 Conference Registration and International Photo Exhibit in Geneva Room

8:00-8:45 Breakfast and Plenary Session

Mark Schug, Professor Education
University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee
“The Status of Social Studies in Elementary and Secondary Schools”

8:55-9:55 Sectional Sessions

- Jeremy Todd – Politics, Education, Language and Citizenship in Morocco (F)
- Mimi Yang – Global Education: Theory and Practice (G)
- Gregory Imbur – Address Citizenship & Literacy by Internationalizing the K-16 Curricula (H)
- Madeline Uraneck, Clement Lephoto, and Wade DallaGrana – Live from Lesotho! HIV/AIDS, Education, and More from Lesotho in Southern Africa (Geneva)
- Stephanie Cowan – Bringing UW-Madison International Speakers in to Your Classroom (Green Bay)

10:05-11:05 Exhibit Hall Grand Opening & International Photo Exhibit in Geneva Room

11:15-12:15 Sectional Sessions

- Kate Arnold – The Long Road to School: Literacy and Education in Latin America (F)
- Renata Laxova – Personal Memories of Life Under Hitler and Stalin (G)
- Courtney Bauder and Natalie French – Global Educator Graduate Program at UW-Oshkosh (H)
- Ronnie Hess and Michael Morris – Around the World: Using Photography to Teach Global Literacy (Geneva)
- Sue Gogue, John Gunnell, and Jim Hess - Teaching about Germany in the Elementary Classroom (Green Bay)

12:15-1:45 Luncheon and Keynote Speaker

Remarks – Gilles Bousquet, Dean of International Studies and Director of the International Institute, UW-Madison

Keynoter - Gloria Ladson-Billings, Kellner Family Professor of Urban Education, UW-Madison
“The Globalization of Education as a Commodity”

1:45-2:00 Exhibit Hall and International Photo Exhibit in Geneva Room

2:00-3:00 Sectional Sessions

- Michael Bonnie and Shanhui Chen – Connecting Students in Milwaukee with Northwest China (F)
- Dean Bowles – Haiti: Images of Hope and Despair (G)
- Lucie Ferrari – The Worldwide Revolution of Digital Video: KINO Filmmaking Broadens the Meaning of Citizenship (H)
- Rachel Weiss, Lara Kain, and Julie Kline – Internationalize Your Curriculum with Resources from UW-Madison and UW-Milwaukee Title VI Outreach Centers (Geneva)
- Mark Lilleleht – Enhancing Global Literacy through Study of Environmental Issues (Green Bay)

Monday, March 19 (Continued)

3:10-4:10 Sectional Sessions

- Ibrahim Duyar - Creating a “Blended” National Identity Where East Meets West: The Case of Turkey (F)
- Doris Hayes – Bring the World to Your Classroom: Inexpensive Travel for Educators (G)
- Jay Harris – The International Information Network: A New Tool for Educators (H)
- Julie Kline – Children's Literature to Explore Latin American/Latino Cultural Heritage (Geneva)
- Milan Hauner – Czechs and Germans, Yesterday and Today: Taking Stock over 1,000 Years (Green Bay)

4:20-6:00 Wine and Cheese Social in Exhibit Hall and International Photo Exhibit in Geneva Room
Friends of International Education Meeting in Geneva Room

Tuesday, March 20

7:30-2:00 Registration

8:00-8:45 Breakfast and Plenary Session

Peggy Altoff, President, National Council for the Social Studies
“Challenges of Citizenship and Literacy in a
Global Society through the Relationships We Build”

8:55-9:55 Sectional Sessions

- Andrew Clement and Kristen Molyneaux– Teaching African Culture in America's Classrooms (F)
- Carol LeBreck and Friends of International Education, Inc. – International and Global Education Resources, People, and Networks for Wisconsin Teachers (G)
- John Thompson and Linda LeClair – Oaxaca: Mexico's Valley of Myth & Magic (H)
- Jane Morken, Tami Hillestad, and Mariellen Janiszewski – You Have Been Chosen to be Our International School! (Geneva)
- Joseph Elder – Historical and Social Perspectives on the Middle East (Green Bay)

10:05-11:05 Exhibit Hall

11:15-12:15 Sectional Sessions

- Sara Lubbers – Rwanda Africa: Through the Eyes of Children (F)
- Rachel Weiss, Judith Freund & Carol LeBreck – Opportunities for Teachers to Travel Abroad (G)
- Megan Schliesman and Kathleen Horning – Beyond Borders: Recent International Literature for Children and Teens (H)
- Glenn Schmidt, Dennis Oulahan, and Bob Lehman – The Education International World Congress - Berlin 2007 (Geneva)
- Gloria Alter and Students – Using the Arts to Develop Global Citizenship (Green Bay)

12:15-1:45 Luncheon and Keynote Speaker

James G. Basker, Richard Gilder Professor of Literary History
Barnard College and Columbia University
“Literature Makes History: How Poets Helped End Slavery”

1:55-4:25 International-Global Workshops

- Judy Freund – Internationalizing Your Classroom through Global Project Collaborations (F)
- Antje Petty – Immigrant or Citizen? How German-Speaking Europeans became Americans and What it Means Today (G)
- Daniel Banda – After the Immigrant-Immigration and Border Issues in the 21st Century (H)
- Lara Kain, Alexandra Totorititis, and Lexa Speth – Citizenship and Identity in the New Europe (Geneva)