

WCSS/IEC CONVENTION

Monday March 20, 2006

7-7:50 Breakfast and Registration

	Salon A (45)	Salon B (45)	Salon C (45)	Salon D (45)	Salon E (45)	Salon F (45)	Salon G (45)	Salon H (45)	Geneva (138)	Green Bay (25)	La *Crosse (25)	Milwaukee (25)	Middleton (36)
	History Strand	Geography Strand	Economics Strand	Civics/Gov. Strand	Discussion Strand	International Education	International Education	International Education	Professional Education	General Sectionals	General Sectionals	General Sectionals	General Sectionals
8-9 Session 1	Celebrate Madison History: Our State Capitol- Beth Lemke	New Orleans: Nothing Easy about the "Big Easy." - Mark Bockenbauer	Teachers Can Be Millionaires Too - Mark Schug	Meeting Wisconsin's Social Studies Standards: Digital, Video & More!- Kurt Griemer-	Introduction to Discussion Strands- Dr. James Hartwick	Islam and the World and in Your Classroom- Beth Mudlaff	Making Connections in a Diverse World: Teaching Modern Germany- Wood Powell	Looking at HIV- AIDS Close Up: An Educator in Kenya- Laurie Derse	Planning, Marketing and Managing a Successful Faculty Led Study Abroad Program- Richard A. Straw	Critically Thinking About History: A Document-Based Approach- Beverly Vaillancourt	Teaching About the U.N.- Tamerin Hayward	Archaeology in the Social Studies Curriculum- Jean Dowiasch
9:10-10:10 Session 2	Voices and Votes: How Democracy Works in Wisconsin- Bobbie Malone	The People Connection: Hands-on Human Geography- Hope Longwell-Grice	Who is Ben Bernanke? Why should you care! - Dave Bashaw	We The People... Project Citizen- Jack Jarmes	Let Your Students Do the Talking - Richard Upderove	Bringing Global Health Concerns and Issues into the Classroom- Joe Czermiak	Modern Germany: The Goethe Experience - John Gunnell	Using ECB Programs as a World Passport- Marta Bechtol	National Board Certification for Social Studies Teachers- Janice Mertes	Keeping the Current in Current Events- Mark Ryan	100 People Project- Steve Kimbal	Connect Your Classroom to the Real World with Newsweek- Mike Fuller	Technology Integration in a 9 th Grade Global Studies Classroom- Katie Hinz

10-15 - 11:00 Exhibit Hall Grand Opening

11:05-12:05 Session 3	Teaching History- Teaching Historical Thinking- Nikki Mandell	EarthKAM and Mission Geography-Using NASA Photography in your Social Studies Classroom - Lauren Mittermann-	Integrating Economics into World Geography and Thinking Globally Bill Duddleston	"We The People..." Civic Education Program for Grades 4-9- Gregory Walsko	Leading a Socratic Seminar Discussion- James Hartwick,	Expressing Culture Beautifully: Teaching About Immigrant Arts in Wisconsin- Anne Pryor	Making Connections in a Diverse World: A Kid Like Me Across the Sea- Wood Powell	Culture – It's in the Bag! Making Connections with Students in Uzbekistan - Sandra Kowalczyk	Writing for Publication in the Journal - Eileen Hilke	Psychology Activities and Applications- Mary Jarvis	Experimental Living Through Travel Abroad- Susan Ermer	It's About Time- David Hunt	Tragedy and Heroism: Scott and the Quest for the Pole- Mike McKinnon
-----------------------	---	---	--	---	--	--	--	--	--	---	--	-----------------------------	--

12:05-1:30 Lunch and Keynote Speaker – Dr. Jeff Passe, President of the National Council For The Social Studies, "New Social Studies for Changing Times."

1:30-2 Exhibit Hall

2 -3:00 Session 4	Online Primary Sources from the Wisconsin Historical Society- Michael Edmonds	Population: How Dense Can We Get? Joel Anderson-	Teaching High School Economics: Pointers from the Pros- Jim Flora	Service-Learning And Ideas For A Diverse Curriculum- John Fischer	Teaching Students to Discuss Controversial Issues in Middle & High School Classes (120 min. session)- Diana Hess	Traveling to Nepal: Bringing other Cultures to our Classrooms- Karoline White	The Janesville Academy for International Studies- John Thompson	Incorporating China into the Curriculum: A Cross Disciplinary Model - Jackie Strahl	Learning the Ropes- Randy Goree	How German Is American? How American is German? – Global Connections Over the Centuries- Antje Petty	Instructional Materials In American Indian Studies- JP Leary	Bringing the Constitutional Convention to Life- Christine Kadonsky	Incorporating Multiple Perspectives in US History Courses Through Use of Primary Documents Found on the Internet- Harold Sorknes
3:10-4:10 Session 5	Teaching with Mai Ya: The Hmong Experience in Wisconsin- Bobbie Malone	Jump Into GPS!- Randall Colton	Eco-Detectives: The New Green Economics Machine - Tracy Hofer	Retired Teachers- Author of The Legislative Semester (120 min. session)- Stephen Arnold	Diana Hess- Continued	The World's Largest Democracy: Bringing the Study of India into Your Classroom- Rachel Weiss	Revisiting How We Teach about Foreign Policy- Paul Rykken	Connecting the World in your Classroom: iEARN and the Bridge Program- Sue Reget	Tackling the Boards: The Ins and Outs of Becoming a Nationally Certified Teacher in Social Studies- Pete Lien	Engaging Reading and Writing Strategies for the Social Studies- Michael Yell	WebSTAR: Intra-Middle School Collaborative Learning About the Bill of Rights- Steve Rose	Junior Achievement- Tami Satre	Understanding American Cultural Values- Dennis White
4:20-5:20 Session 6			Energy, Economics, and Society- Sara Windjue	Stephen Arnold- Continued	Digital Deliberation- Jeremy Stoddard			Networking SIG, for Economics, Civics & Government, History, Geography and Class Discussion	Lions and Tigers and Professional Development, Oh My! Professional Development Plans, the New Licensure Requirement for Advancement: How WCSS Can Help!- Catherine L. Cullen	Celebrating the Centennials of Conservation- Alice B. Kehoe	Connecting with a Diverse World Starts with Understanding our own Past- Sterling Strathe		Have Passport Will Travel: Professional Development Opportunities- Sue Gogue

5:20-6:30 Wine and Cheese Social in Exhibit Hall

