

WCSS/IEC CONVENTION

Tuesday March 21, 2006

7:00-7:50 BREAKFAST IN EXHIBIT HALL

	Salon A (45)	Salon B (45)	Salon C (45)	Salon D (45)	Salon E (45)	Salon F (45)	Salon G (45)	Salon H (45)	Geneva (138)	Green Bay (25)	La Crosse (25)	Milwaukee (25)	Middleton (25)
	History Strand	Geography Strand	Economics Strand	Civics/Gov. Strand	Discussion Strand	International Education	International Education	International Education	Professional Education	General Sectionals	General Sectionals	General Sectionals	General Sectionals
8-9 Session 1	Using Workers' Stories to Tell History- Ken Germanson		Virtual Economics: An Indispensable Resource for Teaching Social Studies- Brian Schultz		Exploring Multiple Views on Current Issues Through Structured Academic Controversy - Paula DeHart	International Reach: Collaborating for Cross-Cultural Communication -Stephanie Cowan	Children's Literature from Around the World- Lara Kain	Seasons in a French School- Ronnie Hess	Higher Education Consortium Meeting- Katy Heyning		Connecting with Clear and Constructive Communication -Bill Collar
9:10-10:10 Session 2	Teaching History with Primary Documents -Nikki Mandell	Exploring Built Environments Through Children's Literature- Steven L. Shaw	Understanding Economics in US History- Mark Schug	Using Mind Sparks to Foster Lively Discussion in the Classroom- John Burack	Active Methods for the Social Studies Classroom- Jon Parsons	Bringing South Africa to Wisconsin- Jan Lorch	New Challenges for an Old U.N. - Douglas Savage	Middle Eastern Art, Mathematics & Culture for Kids- John Thompson	Katy Heyning Continued	Hmong Migration- Susan Nigohosian	Inquiry: A Motivating Social Studies Strategy- Michael Yell	Using Concepts of the Present to Understand the Past: Hope for the Future- Mike Fuller

10-20:11:00 EXHIBIT HALL

11 -12: Session 3	Connecting to the Past: In Search of Local History- Carol Larson	Mentoring-A Hands-On Approach- J. Simonsen	Get in the Game! Teaching Economics Using Sports.- Scott Niederjohn	Constitutional Day Resources for Use All Year Round- Glenn Diedrich		Africa: Country In Crisis- Stephanie Tresemer	Explore the History of Kyrgyzstan through Music- Lara Kain	Bringing Global Environmental Issues to Social Studies Classrooms- Bianca Sonnenberg	Social Studies in the Era of No Child Left Behind- Josef Maurer	From the Headlines to Your Classroom: Teaching the Death Penalty- Jennifer Adger	Developing Intercultural Sensitivity- Dennis White	Designing Activities for Progressive Social Studies: Addressing Controversial Issues and Global Connections- Gloria T. Alter
-------------------	--	--	---	---	--	---	--	--	---	--	--	--	--

12:05-1:30 Lunch and Keynote Speaker- Dr. Steven L. Miller, Associate Professor of Social Studies and Global Education - "Globalization and Liberalization: Some First-hand Impressions"

1:40-4:10 IEC/WCSS Workshops

	Salon A (45)	Salon E (45)	Salon F (45)	Salon G (45)	Salon H (45)
	Connecting Chinese, English, & Spanish Speaking Worlds in the 21 st Century- MimiYang	An Interactive Approach to Teaching the Constitution, Using Free Materials- Gib Stoeberl	When Global becomes Local: The Hmong Cultural Tour- Mark Wagler	The European Union 2006: Understanding the New Europe- Lara Kain	iEARN – Connecting the World One School at a Time – Judy Freund